

RONALD L. WAGNER

ron@wagners.net ■ 703-282-5763 ■ www.wagners.net
11309 Water Pointe Circle ■ Reston, Virginia 20194

AVIATION EXPERIENCE

Current Pilot: July 1972 - Present

Pilot Ratings

CFIA, CFII, MEI, and CFI. FIRC to June 2023. ATP with N265 type rating and ASEL and MSEL. Glider Commercial. 10,130 hours. 61.56 FR to June 2023. Basic Med to March 2023.

Civilian Flying

Glider Instructor, 448 flights, 138 hours, 96 hours as CFI

Owned a Diamond DA-40 with G1000, 225 hours

Owned a Beech Baron E-55 with G530/430 and Sandel, 250 hours

Rented Cirrus SR-22s with Avidyne and G430s, 50 hours

Various aircraft with G1000: CE-172, BE-36, Columbia 300 and 400; with G300: CE-162; with G3X: AA-5B; with steam gauges: CE-172, CE-150, AA-5B, AA-5, AA-1, BE-24, PA-28, CE-421.

Lobbying and Public Relations: March 1989 - December 1989

Air Line Pilots Association

Congressional lobbyist in U.S. Senate and House. Worked in public relations department, publishing editorials in Washington Post and Aviation Week & Space Technology.

Airline Pilot: November 1979 - March 1989

Eastern Air Lines

Boeing 727, based at DCA, IAD, and BWI, 6,000 hours. Primarily flew the Eastern Air Shuttle between DCA and LGA but flew all over the U.S. and dozens of international destinations.

Wrote aviation editorials published in the Washington Post and Washington Star.

Military Pilot: September 1973 - November 1979

United States Air Force

CT-39A (N265 Sabreliner), 3,035 hours with the Presidential Wing at Andrews AFB in DC. Chief of Standardization and Evaluation. Flew as IP for countless USAF pilots including four USAF Chiefs of Staff, Air Force One pilots, a Thunderbird pilot, and two astronauts.

Flew seven U.S. Presidents, three First Ladies, ambassadors, Senators, Congressional Representatives, first family members, and generals.

Test pilot with Air Force Systems Command, flight testing of new avionics.

USAF pilot training, Distinguished Graduate, 320 hours in T-37A & T-38A.

Education: September 1968 - June 1973

University of Tulsa

B.S. Aerospace Engineering, Air Force ROTC Distinguished Graduate.

Earned PPL and logged 80 hours in CE-150, AA-5, and AA-1.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Author, Series Co-Creator: August 2017 – Current

Renazonce – 23rd Century

Online, serialized, science fiction novel. Concept co-created with my literary agent and I'm the author of the weekly story content.

www.renazonce.com

Author, Creative Design, CEO, President, Founder/Owner: June 1996 - June 2010

Citapei Communications

Authored more than 100 Internet books, which sold more than 10.3 million copies, published by Citapei.

Pioneered the customer welcome kit concept for the cable broadband industry, then created those kits for every cable company in the country. Kits included books, manuals, installation guides, installation CDs, mouse pads, forms, stickers, and cable modem connection hardware.

Created and wrote a weekly Sunday newspaper comic strip that ran for 396 Sundays.

Author, Computer Training, Software Development, Owner: Feb 1986 - Oct 1996

Productivity Partners

Certified Instructor for WordPerfect, at top law firms in Washington and New York, plus U.S. government and military agencies.

Certified Instructor for Group 1 Software, trained all over the U.S., plus internationally in and Africa, South America, Europe, and Asia.

Wrote and published monthly computer magazine articles, computer guidebooks on programming languages and software.

Wrote and published software that sold in B. Dalton bookstores and Software Express/Direct.

Taught Web site design and creation to developers at NASA, Census Bureau, and HUD.

Works Published by Other Publishers

The Internet Training Manual, by McGraw-Hill

The Worldwide Web Training Manual, by McGraw-Hill

Building the Corporate Intranet Training Manual, by McGraw-Hill

The Weather Sourcebook, by Globe-Pequot (two editions)

Turbo Pascal Programmers Guide, by TDA Associates

Electric Desk User Guide, by TDA Associates

Ghost-wrote four business books for noted executives and motivational speakers. Published by Business One Irwin, Master Media, and Villard Books.

Created the Douglas DC-8 flight manual for DHL, published by Avitas.